

Indonesia

 Official Language: Indonesian Capital: Jakarta Area: 1,904,569 km² Population: 237,646,321	 State Emblem: Garuda Pancasila State Motto: Bhinneka Tunggal Ika State Religion: Islam	Geography: Indonesia is an archipelago of 17,000 islands, 6,000 of which are inhabited. It is the world's largest archipelago and the world's fourth largest country by area. It is located in Southeast Asia, between the Indian Ocean to the south and the Pacific Ocean to the east.	History: Indonesia was first mentioned in Chinese records in the 1st century AD. It was a major center of Hindu and Buddhist activity in Southeast Asia from the 3rd to the 13th centuries AD. It was colonized by the Dutch in the 17th century and became the Dutch East Indies. It gained independence in 1945.	Government: Indonesia is a unitary state with a presidential system of government. The President is the head of state and the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces. The Vice President is the second highest office in the country.
--	---	---	--	---	--

